It is further understood and agreed that orientation (including mirror image and location of the dwelling on the lot) is determined at the sole discretion of the Builder, subject to provisions by local authorities and conditions of the site. Please refer to the community specifications for materials used for the exterior of the home. On-site review by the Builder will determine the exact placement of applicable features. Site conditions may require slight revisions, which Mackie Homes will comply with. Standard cabinet and cabinetry drawings provided by the Builder may differ from final locations and finishes.
