

Iceland Challenge for Charity

We're back from Iceland and thrilled to have made it home in one piece.

Thank you for your ongoing support, words of encouragement and generous donations that allowed us to exceed our fundraising goal and raise $16,249.46 for Royal LePage Shelter Foundation.

This challenge was by far the most difficult, proving to be both physically and mentally exhausting. Our longest day of trekking was more than 13 hours across rugged terrain. We experienced steep uphill hikes, ice cold rivers, treacherous black sand storms, snow covered fields, strenuous rock climbing and covered 115 km over five days. Each day and night we were challenged to push on, all for a great cause and a bigger purpose.

This was truly a life changing experience and we couldn't have done it without your support.

Together with our Royal LePage family, more than $650,000 was raised for women's shelters across Canada.

We are also proud to announce that to date, the Kate Vanderburgh Team has raised more than $52,000 for Royal LePage Shelter Foundation.

We thank you again, until next time, Kate and Josie
